

Avoid negative thinking - always focus on the positives.

Maintain a home / work life balance.

Adopt healthy eating habits and exercise regularly.

Don't take responsibility for other peoples problems.

Get organised - good time management helps to alleviate stress.

Take time out and get away from the things that bother you.

Inform your employer if you are feeling stressed.